Matters Arising

1-4.09.10	Website	Invoice received for £90 payment for membership of Gower Community Council website.
04.03.10	Play equipment safety checks	No further progress reported. Adverse weather
06.09.10	Rocking Horse Mechanism	No progress
13.09.10	Day room stanchions	Clerk expressed concern re: lack of progress / communication from consultant. Clerk to contact Mr Painter to request confirmation of start / completion of works, as future day rooms bookings are affected.
02.11.10	Murton Green Flooding	Concern expressed at lack of progress to resolve the flooding to the green / well area. Cllr Marsh to contact C Pardoe to arrange to rod through drain
08.10.10	Spring Bulbs	Two sacks needed for planting
	Picnic Tables	Installations of tables at Murton Green and Nursery Park has been completed
07.11.10	Murton Rovers Club	Clerk outlined action taken to initially object to the application for a B13 notice to register easements and other rights to the site of the club, made by the landowner, Mr Glynn Vivian. The land registry advised that the Community Council did not possess sustainable grounds for objections, as the landowner had exercised right of easement to the property since the 1920's. It was decided, in the absence of sustainable grounds for objection, to await developments.

08.11.10	Memorial Ceremony	This was well attended, delight expressed at the attendance of pupils from local schools. Appropriate verbal gratitude has been expressed.
	Carol Service	Service to be held 22 nd December. Day room tree and decorations to be arranged on 4 th December.
	Firework event	No full account of financial position was not available as several large accounts remained outstanding.
